

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SEANZ MEMBERS

Members of the Sustainable Electricity Association New Zealand shall undertake to agree with the Code of Conduct of the Association. In particular they:

1. Shall act so as to uphold the integrity of SEANZ and the sustainable electricity industry by associating their business activities with other members of the association, individuals and enterprises of good character.
2. Shall apply their skills and knowledge ethically in the interest of their clients or employers for whom they act.
3. Shall solicit work and sales, advertise and promote their products and services with integrity and truth, avoiding any potentially misleading statements or omissions.
4. Shall regard as confidential any information concerning the business and technical affairs of their employers and clients.
5. Shall inform their clients or employers if circumstances arise, in which their judgment or the independence of their service may be compromised by reason of business connections, personal relationships, interests or affiliations.
6. Shall continue their professional development by keeping abreast of latest technologies and products and also encourage and teach others by passing on this knowledge and experience.
7. Shall deal honestly and truthfully with clients, employers and government agencies in all matters regarding payments, discounts, rebates, grants or conditions applying to them.
8. Shall observe and conform to all relevant rules, standards, codes and guidelines set down by SEANZ and/or appropriate regulatory board.
9. Shall promptly report any apparent breach of the above rules by an accredited member of SEANZ, to the SEANZ board via the Executive Officer.
10. Shall promptly report any apparent breach of the above rules by a non-accredited member to the SEANZ board via the Executive Officer so that those individuals may be encouraged to follow the SEANZ Code and to allow SEANZ to make an appropriate response.
11. Shall not bring the industry into disrepute.
